[redacted] On 1/10/67 source advised that he had not seen [redacted] recently until that morning when he saw [redacted] driving West on Lake Street in the Northlake area. [redacted] now has 1967 Illinois license [redacted] on his car.

Source stated that [redacted] continues to frequent the Club 20. [redacted] who used to [redacted] the El Marrocco is now [redacted] at the Club 20. Source is certain that [redacted] controls [redacted] of the Club 20. [redacted] is a decent man but a number of years ago got in trouble with [redacted] and [redacted] gave him help and has more or less owned him ever since. Working at the Club 20 are [redacted] (LNU) who used to work at the joint on 32nd and North, Stone Park, and a girl named [redacted] (LNU), a former stripper from Cicero who is of Italian extraction dances there and waits on tables. (This is possibly [redacted])

b6
b7C
b7D

[redacted] still frequents the Club 20 and [redacted] him from the Cicero days. She indicated he was a big man in Cicero at one time. [redacted] is a frequent visitor to the Club 20 and apparently a good friend of [redacted]

Source advised that he had heard [redacted] and others at the Club 20 that [redacted] had paid $25,000 to get his license at the "Strangers in the Night" and furious over the fact that he could not get it even after such a payoff. Source stated he has it on good authority that the money was actually passed in an envelope and that the fix was in either with the Judge handling the case or with someone at the Illinois Liquor Control Commission.

Source advised that LOUIS "The Meach" EBOLIX is now the acting outfit chieftan in Stone Park, Illinois and is apparently acting in behalf of and for some higher placed hoodlum. EBOLIX also has all the pinball, pool table, and cigarette machines in Joe's Place, the former Halfway House, in Northlake. EBOLIX controls the chief of police in Stone Park who was handpicked by the "outfit". EBOLIX was arrested about 6 months ago and is charged in court at Oak Park, Illinois for having a payoff pinball machine next door to the Stone Park PD.

b7C
b7D

[redacted] would not allow EBOLIX to put his pool tables in the El Marrocco and EBOLIX definitely represents another outfit faction.

Source advised he has not seen SAM BATTAGLIA going to the farm by way of Lake Street lately and feels the newspaper accounts of his farm and visitors there have made him very sunny lately.

ADMINISTRATIVE

Extensive investigative period is noted; however, this is due to the fact this is an initial report. This case was opened on January 16, 1967, to explore initially the identity of the subject. It was considered being closed administratively up to July 1, 1967, inasmuch as it was felt further investigation was not warranted at the time. Subsequent information as set out determined that subject was, in fact, the son of THOMAS V. M. EBOLI of New York.

It should further be noted that information concerning the subject has been reported on a continuous basis in the case captioned, "GUIDO DE CHIARO, TRUE NAME GAETANO DE CHIARO, AR; Bufile 92-8672, Chicago file 92-1875." A considerable amount of information concerning the subject was also reported in case captioned, [REDACTED] AKA, IGA; Bufile 162-1377, Chicago file 162-530."

b6
b7C

A copy of this report is being submitted to the New York Office for information purposes inasmuch as the subject is the son of THOMAS V. M. EBOLI, also known as TOMMY RYAN, the acting head of the Genovese Family of the La Cosa Nostra.

An article appearing in the "Chicago Tribune",
January 6, 1968, entitled "Ed Battaglia Succeeds Jailed Brother Sam As Rackets Boss", states in part, the following:

"Joseph 'Cowboy' Battaglia, brother of imprisoned mob chief, Sam Battaglia, has become the Mr. Fix of west suburban rackets.

"The 52 year old Battaglia is the overseer of rackets in Melrose Park, with Louis 'The Keech' Eboli, a son of Tony Eboli, powerful New York mafia boss, as the strong man of nearby Stone Park.

"The rackets in Stone Park were placed under the care of Eboli, previously known only as a headknocker and gambler adept in the use of a baseball bat as a disciplinary measure.

"Eboli's only emergence as a gangland boss is credited by investigators to his impressive mafia connections. His father, sometimes known as Tommy Ryan, is reported to have taken the reins of the Vito Genovese mafia family in New York City, after Genovese went to prison on a narcotics charge.

"Proof of Eboli's promotion is found in his assignment of a chauffeur and body guard, Dominic "Diesel" De Santis, a 42 year old parolee from the Illinois State Penitentiary. De Santis was paroled from a ten year to life sentence for the sale of narcotics in 1965.

"When he isn't chauffeuring Eboli, De Santis works at a juke box company in Franklin Park, operated by Guido De Chiara, Eboli's uncle and a close associate of Paul "The Waiter" Ricca, the mob's elder statesman....."
